Dashboard

Your site is currently running on an out-of-date version of PHP!

PHP is the underlying programming language that WordPress and its themes/plugins are written in. Newer releases bring more features, better performance, and regular security fixes.

Your site is currently running on PHP 7.4, which stopped receiving security updates on November 28, 2022!

For improved performance and security, we recommend upgrading your site's PHP version at your earliest convenience.

The streamlined menu is no longer active

If at any point you wish to use the streamlined admin menu, click  Streamline menu at the bottom of the menu.

WooCommerce database update required

WooCommerce has been updated! To keep things running smoothly, we have to update your database to the newest version. The database update process runs in the background and may take a little while, so please be patient. Advanced users can alternatively update via WP CLI.

Don't Panic!

First, some vocabulary

So what do you do with all this?

Step 1: Assess

1. Where is it hosted?
  - a. Who is hosting this.com
  - b. Who is paying the bill?
2. Are there backups?
3. Is there a staging site?
4. Are there software updates to be done?
5. Do I have access to tech support?
6. Which editor is the site using?

Step 2: Get your house in order

1. Take a complete backup
2. Create a staging site if possible
3. Start updating things, one at a time
4. Note anything to follow up on: plugin licenses, updates that can't be run, other questions
5. Start exploring content editing

Step 3: Regularly manage your site

1. Establish a cadence of backups and updates
2. Find some tutorials for WordPress generally and your editor specifically
3. Leverage that staging site to get brave and experiment!

You've totally got this!
